

CA Transparency Act

CA Transparency in Supply Chains Act

Dan Andrews Farms LLC is complying voluntarily with California Civil Code 1714.43 (SB657). The company complies with all applicable laws and regulations concerning human trafficking and slavery in supply chains and will make every effort to include contractual terms with any third party contractors certifying that no outside third party contractor engages in human trafficking or slavery when dealing with our products. The company does not audit third party contractors for compliance or provide training to our employees in these areas, but the company is currently reviewing options to conduct audits and provide training.